Hospitalero Service

Grañon, 2015

Introduction. I learned about the Camino de Santiago in the 1980s but did not make a Camino until 2013. The kindness of strangers, hospitality in albergues and serenity of the way made a deep impression. I recognized that the Camino depends on volunteers and returned home with the idea that I would try to repay that kindness and hospitality. I trained as a hospitalera in 2014 and served in Granon in 2015. In 2016 and 2017 I volunteered in the Pilgrim Office. Service on the APOC board is another facet of my gratitude for the Camino's gifts.
