

The Cathedral has announced that as of Monday, January 28, 2019, masses at the Cathedral will be suspended while renovations continue in the central nave. These renovations are expected to last 12 months. This is what's expected:

- The daily pilgrim mass will take place at the church of San Francisco.
- Important masses linked to a solemnity or a feast day, like St. James' Day, will be held at the historic church of San Martin Pinário, which considered a national monument.
- Foreign language masses normally held in the various chapels in the Cathedral will be held in the churches of San Fructuoso, San Fiz de Solovio, Santa María Salomé and in the chapel located inside the Pilgrims' Office.
- Normal daily masses (7:30 AM, 9:00 AM, 10:00 AM and 7:00 PM on weekdays, 6:00 PM on Saturdays, and 1:00 PM and 6:00 PM on Sundays) will take place at the church of Santa María Salomé on Rua Nova.
- The 11:00 AM mass at the Corticela chapel, a parish within the Cathedral, will continue as normal.
- The Cathedral will remain open for visits between 9:00 AM and 7:00 PM and pilgrims will be able to hug the saint and visit the crypt.
- The visits to the Portico de la Gloria will continue.
- The only entrance to the Cathedral will be through the Porta das Praterias.
